Dear Brent, Calrose + Family,

We hope this finds you all doing well. We are going through some times in the world, which is keeping us away from both our biological and Church family. We are missing you, but our God is a good God and He will see us through these days.

We think of you all fondly as we celebrate our new babies!!! ☺

Please call if we can help you in any way!!!

ROMANS 15:13 NIV

Easter Greetings

A pastor's wife was preparing pancakes for her young sons. The boys began to argue over who would get the first pancake. Their mother saw the opportunity for a moral lesson. If Jesus were sitting here, He would say, "Let my brother have the first pancake." The oldest boy turned to his younger brother and said, "You be Jesus."

Big Ed seemed to always fall asleep during the Sunday Sermon. His wife was fed up and decided to deal with the embarrassing situation. The next Sunday when he fell asleep, she quietly removed some pungent Limburger cheese from a ziplock bag in her purse and passed it under his nose. Groggily startled, Big Ed blurted out, "No, Helen, no – don't kiss me now."

A new pastor was visiting in the homes of his parishioners. At one house it seemed obvious that someone was home, but no answer came to his repeated knocks at the door. Therefore, he took out a business card and wrote "Revelation 3:20" on the back of it and stuck it in the door. When the offering was processed the following Sunday, he found that his card had been returned. Added to it was this cryptic message, "Genesis 3:10". Reaching for his Bible to check out the citation, he broke up in gales of laughter. Revelation 3:20 begins "behold, I stand at the door and knock". Genesis 3:10 reads, "I heard your voice in the garden and I was afraid for I was naked."

One Easter Sunday morning as the pastor was preaching a children's sermon, he reached into his bag of props and pulled out an egg. He pointed at an egg and asked the children, ""What's in here?" "I know, I know!" a little boy exclaimed, "pantyhose!"

It was Palm Sunday but because of a sore throat, 5-year-old Johnny stayed home from church with a sitter. When the family returned home, they were carrying several palm fronds. Johnny asked them what they were for. "People held them under Jesus' feet as he walked by," his father told him. "Wouldn't you know it," Johnny fumed, "the one Sunday I don't go and he shows up."
